Broken Chair is a huge sculpture in front of the United Nations.

David Daper is an archetype, an urban traveler in quest of his city's gems: a pretty store, an original street food spot in an arty neighborhood, an alternative coffee shop where he likes to spend time away from the hustle and bustle. David Daper is a daily life adventurer who like to take the time to discover cities freely, from another angle - bearing values such as simplicity, authenticity and a pronounced taste for local cultures. Authenticity, simplicity, urban adventure is part of their Way of Life.

David Daper is everyone of us.
